Lawyer Seeks To Dissolve
Belli Practice

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15 (AP)—An attorney in Melvin Belli's law firm filed suit Thursday to dissolve the partnership although Belli contends the lawyer is merely an employee, not a partner.

Robert L. Lieff, 35, filed the suit in Superior Court claiming the Belli firm was $200,000 in debt and creditors might demand immediate payments unless the court acts.

Firm partner Vasilios Choulos said he and Belli contend Lieff is not a partner, although his name has appeared on the firm masthead. Lieff's suit claims Belli fired him after a dispute arose Sept.
